

Developing Community Led Programs in Integrated Rabbit Control Preparing for RHDV K5

A one-day workshop & field trip designed for current and potential leaders of landcare groups, landcare facilitators and others interested in community led rabbit control programs covering:

- The science of integrated rabbit control
- A case study of an effective and sustained program (20+ years)
- Methods of data collection and analysis
- Community engagement and networking
- The future release of RHDV K5 and how to maximise its impact

Date: Saturday June 4th 2016
Time: 8:30am for a 9:00 start – until 4:30
Location: Gooram Soldiers' Memorial Hall
Corner of Sargoods & Euroa Mansfield Roads
Gooram. (13km from Euroa) – look for field day sign
Cost: No charge
Catering: Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea provided
Clothing: Boots for walking and weather appropriate attire

For further information and registration contact (by Monday May 23rd):

Kerri Robson	0418 140 710	landcare2@iinet.net.au
Neil Devanny	0457 526 566	neil.n.devanny@gmail.com

A project of
The Granite Creeks Project Inc.

Economic Development,
Jobs, Transport and Resources

This is a collaboration between the Victorian Government and the Invasive Animals Cooperative Research Centre