ESG IN AGRICULTURE

About the conference

Environment, Social, Governance (ESG) is arguably the biggest move seen in agriculture, with consumers demanding a high level of product integrity and proof of source. This conference offers the opportunity to learn more about what ESG means for farmers and their market partners.

Speakers include:

Rosemary Bissett
Head ESG Risk, National Australia Bank

Edwina Clowes
Manager Sustainability Frameworks and Stakeholders, MLA

Jason Colosimo
Head of Commercial and Strategy, Coles
